

By the time you're 80 years old you've learned everything. Then, you only have to remember it.

– George Burns

